Capability statement

2018

Grant Thornton Affinity started in 1996 with the aim of providing non-competitive specialist support services to its member network of accountants, lawyers and professional advisers.

Aligned to Grant Thornton’s focus on the dynamic mid-market segment, Grant Thornton Affinity supports members who seek assistance in addressing the needs of their clients, in areas outside of their own immediate skill sets.

It has been fundamental to the success of Grant Thornton Affinity that services are offered in support of members, not in competition to them. The relationship between you and Grant Thornton is a mutually beneficial partnership focusing on growing together.

Member benefits

As a member of Grant Thornton Affinity, you will benefit from:

Access to the global Grant Thornton network to discuss issues, obtain discrete pieces of advice or to work with you on larger projects.

Access to industry research and thought leadership in a wide variety of sectors.

Access to all Australian and overseas financial institutions – including market leading research on the finance sector.

Social events and networking – ranging from conferences, events, webinars and our long running AFL, NRL and Super 15 footy tipping competitions.

We support you as a member of Grant Thornton Affinity in a number of ways:

Sounding Board
Free initial conversation with Grant Thornton specialists in Australia to troubleshoot particular client issues.

Technical support
Structured technical support. Provision of formal advice to members and/or their clients. Preferential rates are applied to members.

Project support
Longer term project assignments. Preferential and structured rates are applied to members under a full letter of engagement.

Membership of Grant Thornton Affinity is free of charge. We are committed to returning member enquiries as promptly as possible, generally within one business day of your email or call being received. Grant Thornton will only work on matters that you or your client asks us to perform. We will always provide a fair and accurate estimate of the costs involved and commit to our quoted fees (unless the scope of work is materially changed).

Industry expertise

In today's market, knowing your business environment and market is critical. At Grant Thornton, our industry teams offer industry-specific, insightful and objective solutions to the challenges facing businesses today.

We study industry trends and issues closely so that we better understand the complex issues facing businesses in their industry. Grant Thornton's industry specialists, led by partners with deep industry experience, use insights, experience and instinct to provide meaningful, forward looking advice to help dynamic organisations unlock their potential for growth.

As a member of Grant Thornton Affinity you have the ability to access Grant Thornton's industry insights from our local and global network of industry specialists.
